

CROP START LEAVES
ROOM FOR SETBACKS

Corn Acreage Is Not Cut as Much as Had Been Expected.

The aspect of the grain crop situation remains the same, with no important complaints being registered from any section. There is certain to be a change and as the season progresses setbacks will be encountered, but the room for deterioration will be considerable because of the great progress that has been made thus far. Some of the official reports are as yet coming to hand and of a more optimistic tenor than the private reports.

The Missouri State report shows a wheat condition figure of 90 per cent. and it can be seen that a better showing can hardly be expected. A year ago at this time the condition of wheat in Missouri was under 60 per cent. With favorable weather conditions the next several weeks Missouri will have a good harvest for a crop of nearly 10,000,000 bushels, to be a record and more than double that of last year.

The spring wheat advice indicate that the delay to seeding in the northern part of the country will not be as late as was feared and that the crop will be better than last year. Very little seeding is to be done now in the parts of North Dakota and the other northern states. Wheat in Minnesota and South Dakota is already up. In small crop years in the Northwest wheat has suffered principally from extreme heat and drought, but with such conditions frequently obviated by an early crop start. This year spring wheat is early and subsoil conditions are excellent.

The Van Dusen-Harrington Company in its special crop letter makes the point that new land has been opened in Montana and in North Dakota and that notwithstanding the scarcity of farm labor and of high wages seedling has been accomplished over increased areas and under favorable conditions. The company is now coming up nicely in the Southwest and the planting is making good progress in northern districts. Official reports from Iowa indicate that the crop for corn is well advanced and seed corn testing has been proceeding rapidly. It is generally recognized that the decrease in the corn area this year will not be as late as was feared, and a larger yield at acre may result than was the case last year because of the careful selection and better crop cultivation.

Seeding of oats and barley in northern districts is practically completed and large acreages are reported, especially where the grain is raised for stock. From Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma, also Illinois and Indiana, come reports that oats are well advanced and that the grain is well established and gauged at this time promises better than the big yields of last year.

Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, April 13.—Prospects of liberal receipts and of greater pressure from foreign sources combined to break to-day in the value of corn. Prices closed nervous, 3/4 to 3/8c. net. May 13 1/2 and July 15 1/2. Oats and barley were 1/2 to 1/4c. net. The outcome in provisions was unchanged to 1/4c. down. Liquidation, short selling and lack of demand were the factors in the market throughout the day and seemed to be checked but little if any by the usual week and adjustment of trades. A decided surplus of corn was visible in the corn belt and it was added that the quality of receipts continued good. Moreover, fresh receipts of corn were being received from other terminal markets added to the pressure on the bulls. Under such circumstances the downward course of prices was virtually unopposed and the lowest prices of the season were touched just before the close.

Oats gave way with corn. Besides, arrivals from the West were heavy and nothing was heard of any urgent call from the seaboard.

Assertions that the semi-monthly report from Washington would show a good sized increase weakened sentiment. Higher quotations on hogs were ignored.

WHEAT—The continued discussion in Washington over the question of raising the price of wheat to $2.50 is still a factor in the market. The price of wheat was 1/2 to 1/4c. net. The outcome in provisions was unchanged to 1/4c. down. Liquidation, short selling and lack of demand were the factors in the market throughout the day and seemed to be checked but little if any by the usual week and adjustment of trades.

CORN—There was a very sharp break in the market Saturday. May position in Chicago was closing at 13 1/2c. and new contracts were 3/4c. lower. Local market, May 13 1/2 and July 15 1/2. Oats and barley were 1/2 to 1/4c. net. The outcome in provisions was unchanged to 1/4c. down. Liquidation, short selling and lack of demand were the factors in the market throughout the day and seemed to be checked but little if any by the usual week and adjustment of trades.

MARCH COTTON CONSUMPTION.

Amounts to 571,502 Running Sales, Exclusive of Lintless Consumed during March amounted to 571,502 running sales, exclusive of lintless. The Census Bureau to-day announced that for the month of March the consumption was 571,502 bales, and for the eight month period, 4,508,818 bales. Cotton on hand March 31, in consuming establishments was 1,731,311 bales, compared with 2,083,914 a year ago, in public storage and at compresses, 3,254,499 bales, compared with 2,914,946. Cotton ginspines active numbered 33,749,555, compared with 31,310,310 a year ago. Imports for March were 13,545 bales, compared with 47,879 a year ago. Exports were 111,581 bales, compared with 111,581 a year ago. For the eight months, 5,473,311 bales, compared with 4,547,128 a year ago. Linters exported were 12,847 bales, compared with 17,670 a year ago, and for the eight months, 102,413 bales, compared with 238,377 a year ago.

FURTHER DECLINES
IN COTTON PRICES

July Sells Off to 80.28c., a
Drop of 98 Points From Friday's Closing.

There was a renewal of excited general liquidation and a further sensational break in the cotton market yesterday. July contracts sold off to 80.28c., making a decline of 98 points from Friday's close, approximately 2 cents per pound from the high level of Friday morning and of over 1 1/2 cents per pound from the high record of the previous week. That delivery closed at 80.28c., with the general list closing barely steady at a net decline of 77 to 119 points.

There seemed to be no fresh bearish factor connected with the decline. The big break of yesterday in the market strengthened the influence of the features which have created bearish sentiment and increased the apprehensions of further liquidation. The market was weak at a decline of 8 to 79 points and before the first rush of selling orders subside active months were 78 to 86 points lower. The market was weak at a decline of 8 to 79 points and before the first rush of selling orders subside active months were 78 to 86 points lower. The market was weak at a decline of 8 to 79 points and before the first rush of selling orders subside active months were 78 to 86 points lower.

The report of the Census Bureau on supply and distribution showed domestic mill consumption of 471,215 bales for the month of March, against 502,913 last year. These figures were somewhat better than indicated by recent forecasts, but the absence of trade buying activity offset bullish advice from the goods trade. Week end reviews of the new crop prospects showed that the season was low temperatures, but did not suggest any damage and tended to promote the favorable view of the new crop start.
